
"Pastor Angelicus," a picture "photographed within the Vatican" dealing with the daily life of Pope Pius XII, is slated to open here about Christmas, according to plans of Bernard Brandt, president of Chapel Films Corporation, it was announced yesterday. The film, which has a prologue by Cardinal Spellman, and will be narrated by Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, will be distributed and exhibited by War Relief Services, Inc.

Bernard Lewis, former newspaperman and recently a motion picture publicist, has been appointed publicity director of Story Productions, Inc., it was announced by Armand Deutsch, president of the independent film producing company. Tim Healy has been appointed Middle Eastern Manager of the Motion Picture Association, it was announced yesterday by Eric Johnston, president.

The New York Times

Published: September 30, 1946

Copyright © The New York Times